

So many options for a door, how can one possibly settle on the perfect design? It's actually easy if you have some basic answers ready when it is time to go and find the perfect door!

Here are some questions to ask yourself to be ready to plan your new entry door!

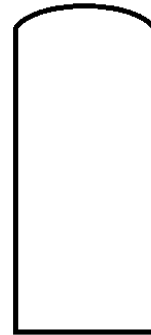

1. Single door or double door?
2. Size of opening?
3. Will it have glass or be a solid wood door?
4. Do you know what shape it needs to fill?

- Pictures speak a thousand words, so the saying goes. If you have a sketch, or a picture from the internet or even a home you were driving by, we can work off the pictures and make a wonderful design just for you. Also check out our gallery of installations to see if something speaks to you!
- It's OK to not fully know, but it is helpful, what features you do or do not want in the door.
- If you don't want to keep the shape you currently have, ask about options to change the shape.
- Don't be afraid to ask! While there may be limitations on sizes and hardware based on the impact approvals, you would be surprised what is still covered and can be done!
